Industry News

- The City of Wichita and the Sedgwick County Commission are each providing $50,000 to the local economic development partners working on the Brookings Global Cities Initiative. Wichita was one of eight cities selected to be part of this program to grow exports in the chosen metro areas.
- In March the Wichita City Council approved the establishment of a tourism business improvement district, which will levy an additional 2.75 percent guest tax at Wichita hotels with more than 50 rooms. The additional money collected is expected to be in the range of $2.5 million to $3 million annually and will be used to market Wichita's tourism industry.
- Construction on a new park located in the city of Derby is set to begin in early 2015. The cost of the project is estimated at $5.8 million.
- In June, a Chinese delegation signed an aviation agreement with the city of Wichita. The agreement, which is a memorandum of understanding, facilitates the process for Wichita to provide goods and services to the city of Shenyang's aviation industry.
